By accepting funding for a CNYC program, I understand that I must provide a supporting letter, which will outline all partner recommendations and contributions. Any program, which has at its core supporting youth employment, must have attached a letter showing proof of employment from the employer(s).

Should the applicant be applying on behalf of an organization, with a board of directors, the applicant must provide a letter, which shows that they or someone chosen by the board will be designated to sign on the board's behalf.

If the applicant is applying on behalf of a band organization, they must provide a letter of support from said band.

By signing this form, I agree that all information provided within is accurate and correct:
